

Ex-Service Personnel

Mentoring in Schools

Are you a resident of Lancashire who has served or the spouse or partner of someone who has served in the UK Armed Forces

Would you like to retrain and gain valuable experience for a new career?

Are you interested in supporting secondary school pupils to improve their attendance, inclusion and progression?

The Ex-Service Personnel Mentoring in Schools Programme could be for you...

What does it involve?

- An ongoing commitment by Lancashire County Council to recruit ex-service personnel, spouses and partners to become part of Lancashire County Council's Mentoring in Schools programme.
- The opportunity to re-train and gain valuable experience towards supporting young people in secondary education.
- Paid work experience and training opportunities to aid transition back into civilian life.
- Support to students through 1-1 and group mentoring sessions.
- Learn new skills and build on existing knowledge.

What are the benefits?

- Receive a salary whilst training towards a new career.
- Work with young people on one to one basis, inspiring, motivating and supporting them to make the best of their abilities and maximise their potential.
- Work in a non-teaching role, alongside school support and teaching staff and learn from their expertise.
- Gain recognised mentoring qualifications and experience
- Transition back to civilian life in a way which contributes to the community of Lancashire.

Ex-Service Personnel

Mentoring in Schools

What training will the Mentors receive?

- Effective Mentoring Level 3.
- Youth Mental Health First Aid
- Safeguarding and Pupil Support training and development opportunities appropriate to the Council and your role

What attributes and qualifications are required to be considered for the programme?

- Relevant qualifications in literacy and numeracy
- Service Personnel experience and residence in Lancashire.
- Experience of meeting deadlines whilst maintaining quality and quantity of work.
- The ability to engage with young people in a 1:1 setting.
- Strong communication and negotiation skills.
- Driving Licence desirable only.
- IT Skills.

Where can I find out more?

Email us: at adam.lewis@lancashire.gov.uk

Call on: 01772 530642/07788 357212 or scan the QR code

Ex-Service Personnel have a great deal to offer employers and we can help you sell yourself.