

Lancaster Evaluation Group

Event Series

The Lancaster Evaluation Group (LEG) are a cross-institutional and interdisciplinary team of researchers and practitioners based at Lancaster University, who have come together through a common interest in evaluative practice.

The group are hosting a series of hybrid events exploring different aspects of evaluation. Each session will include a seminar led by visiting experts in the field of evaluation followed by a networking session, called 'Evaluation Café'. Participants can connect, converse, and collaborate on all things evaluation.

Session 1

Monday 3rd June 2024

Visit Session Page

Evolving approaches to and expectations of evaluation in education

Binda Patel and Jonathan Schulte

Session 2

Monday 10th June 2024

Visit Session Page

Participatory and collaborative approaches to evaluation

Gemma Moore and Rick Davies

Session 3

Wednesday 19th June 2024

Visit Session Page

Exploring spaces for collective learning in evaluative practice

Emma McDowell, Jonathan Schulte, Nathaniel Pickering and Samantha Child

Session 4

Thursday 27th June 2024

Visit Session Page

Suitability and creativity in evaluation design: prioritising the needs of participants

Barbara Befani and Jessica Ozan

You can register for all sessions via this link.